

THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
United Church of Christ
February 2023

Friends in Christ:

Most of us probably remember very little, if anything, of what we were taught in Sunday School. For some reason, however, I distinctly remember what my Sunday School teacher called “the difference between knowledge and wisdom.” For him, knowledge was “having the facts.” Wisdom was “knowing what to do with them.” He said this often enough that those words found a home in my heart and continue to guide my thinking.

I learned this long before my second semester at divinity school when I encountered John Calvin’s thoughts on the subject. In the first paragraph of the Institutes, Calvin says, “Nearly all wisdom we possess, that is to say, true and sound wisdom consists of two parts: the knowledge of God and of ourselves.”

In Harry Emerson Fosdick’s hymn “God of Grace and God of Glory,” we sing, asking God to “Grant us wisdom, grant us courage.” For some time now, we have been developing courage (“fear that has said its prayers” is how one person describes it). This year during the season of Lent, we will have many ways to “gain a heart of wisdom,” as the Psalmist put it.

Our online Lenten reflections will use texts primarily from the “Wisdom Literature” of the Old Testament (Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes) and the Gospels and Epistles of the New Testament. You can find out how you can be a part of this below. Our Zoom Bible study will explore the challenging book of Ecclesiastes (see below as well) and I will be preaching from Ecclesiastes on the Sundays during Lent.

It's been said that “The search for wisdom is a lifelong journey, fraught with bitter disappointments and unexpected delights.” This Lent we’ll continue that journey together in the hope that we might find wisdom for the living of these days.

Peace,

Bill

He grew up in Iowa City, met Amy at City High, played piccolo in the UI Marching Band and graduated in 2004 with a BS in Computer Science and Mathematics. Chris and Amy were married at Congregational UCC in 2005. In 2015 he received Masters of Systems Engineering from ISU. He and Amy are the parents of Ella, Liliana, Oscar, and Malia and two Golden Retrievers. Chris works at Leepfrog Technologies. Among other things, he coaches baseball and is a Party Parent in Nolte Academy's Nutcracker.

She is the current chair of the Iowa City Police Review Board. She tutors a student in the ESL program at Kirkwood C.C. Several years ago she participated in a Life Story class at the senior center. There she met Warren Paris. They have been married for 2 1/2 years. This is a sweet story of love blooming during the pandemic. Jerri has visited the church for several years and is ready to be an official member. She appreciates the worship services and takes advantage of the on-line opportunity when attending in person is difficult.

Larry Shostrom is a retired American Baptist minister. He has two adult children. Larry says, "Being involved in church has been central to my being my whole life. The tenets of the Gospel have informed my relationships, vocation, and values. Congregational UCC inspires and enriches my spiritual growth."

WE WELCOME YOUR HELP WITH THIS YEAR'S LENTEN DEVOTIONAL

The Season of Lent is a time for reflecting as we seek to grow in knowledge of ourselves and in the knowledge of God (what John Calvin called "true and sound wisdom"). Last year's online daily reflections were very well received by the congregation. Again this year, individuals and/or families are invited to consider a Biblical text and share your thoughts. The theme is "Gaining a Heart of Wisdom," and the texts will be primarily from the "Wisdom Literature" of the Old Testament (Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes) and the Gospels and Epistles of the New Testament. Patte Henderson, Bryan Clemons, and Bill Lovin are coordinating the development of these reflections. We're inviting members and friends to write a short, one paragraph reflection on a particular Biblical text—we'll provide the text, you'll provide the reflection. If you are interested in being a part of this or have any questions, please contact Bill at uccirev@uccic.org or call the church office at 337-4301 or call Patte at 594-7185 or Bryan at 330-7882.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND UPCOMING EVENTS

NEW BIBLE STUDY BEGINS ON FEBRUARY 15

During the season of Lent, Bill Lovin will be leading a Bible study looking at the book of Ecclesiastes. As with our other studies in recent years, this will be held on Zoom (to allow for interstate and international participation) and will meet on Wednesday evenings from 7:00-8:30. We will explore two chapters of Ecclesiastes each week. We'll start on February 15, take a week off for the Ash Wednesday worship service on February 22, and then continue through the five Wednesdays of March.

Please talk with Bill, call him at church (319-337-4301) or email him at uccicrev@uccic.org for more information or to let him know you are interested and he will send you the Zoom invitation.

It's been said that "Of all the books of the Bible, Ecclesiastes is perhaps the least straightforward." This makes it a good book for group study during Lent. Please join with others as we look at this "book about seeking, one that moves between cynicism and acceptance, worldliness and spirituality, anxiety and serenity."

ASH WEDNESDAY PANCAKE SUPPER AND WORSHIP SERVICE BEGIN THE SEASON OF LENT ON FEBRUARY 22

On Wednesday, February 22, our Board of Christian Education will host their annual pancake supper in Rockwood Hall from 6-7 p.m. Sure, it's a day after Mardi Gras, but we Congregationalists have never been ruled by the church calendar. Bring your family and friends and join others for pancakes, eggs, sausage, good company, and good conversation. It will help with planning if you sign up on the sheet in Rockwood Hall or call the church office (337-4301) to let us know how many will attend. But please join us even if you haven't done this.

After eating, we will hold our Ash Wednesday worship service in the sanctuary at 7:00. This will be a time of music and song, scripture and prayer, and the distribution of ashes for those who want them. The worship service is designed for people of all ages.

Easter is Sunday, April 9, this year.

SACRED CONVERSATIONS TO END RACISM: 1.5 day Intensive Workshop on Zoom March 24-25, 2023

The Congregational UCC Mission Board is sponsoring a 1.5-day workshop on Zoom for members of the congregation. Our instructor will be Rev. Dr. Velda Love; information follows. If you are interested in registering send an email to: donna-hirst@uiowa.edu.

"Our world is a neighborhood. . . We are tied together in the single garment of destiny, caught in an inescapable network of mutuality. And whatever affects one directly affects all indirectly." Martin Luther King, Jr., March 31, 1968

The United Church of Christ is guided by its faith and values, believing in, and affirming the full humanity of all people. However, we know that xenophobia, anti-BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, and People of Color) racism, anti-sexual orientation, and non-binary gender identities remain barriers to seeing and accepting all people as equal and worthy of respect.

"Race is not Real. Race does not exist biologically nor anthropologically, neither is there any reference to race in the 66 canonized books of the Bible. Race is neither scientific nor sacred. Race is an artificial social construct, and it serves a social function.

Racism is Real. Racism originates from the unholy belief that there are human groups with particular social and physical characteristics that make them superior or inferior to another human group. – Rev. Traci Blackmon, Executive Minister, Justice and Local Church Ministries, United Church of Christ

UCC-JCIC CORE TEAM: SUPPORTING THE JOHNSON COUNTY INTERFAITH COALITION

The Johnson County Interfaith Coalition (JCIC) is a multi-cultural, faith-based community coalition whose mission is to advocate for social justice and equity, first and foremost for persons of color.

Our congregation has had a "Core Team" supporting the Johnson County Interfaith Coalition since we joined the coalition in 2019. Thirty members of the congregation are currently members, and they receive general updates about activities of the organization and opportunities to support or volunteer throughout the year. Fewer than 1 update email is sent a month; we have a commitment that there will not be regular or irregular meetings. If you would like to be added to this group and receive the mailings, send an email to donna-hirst@uiowa.edu.

ALTERNATIVE GIVING UPDATE:

We received $2380 for Heifer gifts during our Christmas Alternative Giving. An additional $730 was raised for the CommUnity Food Pantry. And 16 hats, 4 scarves, and 30 pairs of mittens were on the Mitten Tree. Thanks to everyone to participated in this annual event. Your giving will make a big difference in the lives of people. Thanks to the Mission Board for coordinating the project. And thanks to Ginny Clemons for her calligraphy that makes the cards so special.

THINK AHEAD FOR ANNUAL OUTERWEAR DISTRIBUTION

The status of this year's Winter Outerwear Distribution is uncertain as the CRC considers its future. Even so, as winter items start to go on sale in the stores, now is a great time to let your dollar go further and purchase coats, gloves, etc. Please store them at your home until the fall when they can be then taken to the distribution site. If the CRC does not sponsor a distribution, there will be other options for donating winter outerwear.

ART FROM THE INSIDE OUT EXHIBIT AT THE ARTIFACTORY—120 N. DUBUQUE ST.

Inside Out is holding an art show titled Art from the Inside Out from January 24 through February 20 at Artifactory. This event is free and open to the public and will showcase the incredible artistry of incarcerated and formerly incarcerated individuals with more than 25 pieces of art.

Join us for a reception February 10 at 7pm, where some of the artists will be present to share their work, share spoken word, and attendees will have the opportunity to gather and build support for artists impacted by incarceration.

You can put a person's body behind bars but it is impossible to cage the imagination. Throughout time, people have turned to the arts to express their thoughts and emotions while incarcerated: memories, hopes for the future, regrets, work that expresses love for family, political commentary, humor, doodles that have helped pass the hours. Art From the Inside Out is meant to celebrate the talent and hard work of these artists as well as promote public awareness of the humanity and resilience of incarcerated people.

HELP TRAIL HELP OLDER ADULTS AT HOME

TRAIL volunteers are essential to their success. Volunteers assist their members in a variety of important ways, all of which are helping older Johnson County adults age more securely in their own homes. And you don't have to be a TRAIL member to be a TRAIL volunteer! Here are some of the ways you can play a vital role in helping members maintain their independence:

- Transportation to doctors' offices, for short errands, or even to the Eastern Iowa airport
- Home services, such as simple repairs, limited yard work
- Medical advocacy, i.e., accompanying members to doctor's appointments, asking questions, and recording instructions
- Phone check-ins for members who desire daily contact with TRAIL
- Helping to organize and staff social, cultural and educational programming to help TRAIL members make new friends, explore their interests, and remain active and engaged in our community
- Providing organizational leadership by serving on our Board of Directors or on one of our board committees.

TRAIL holds monthly Volunteer Orientation sessions designed to help participants learn about our various volunteer opportunities. Want to become a TRAIL volunteer? Click here to download a PDF that explains the Volunteer Services Program in more detail. Orientations sessions are scheduled on an ongoing basis and are listed in their Calendar. If you are interested, please reach out through their Contact page and a member of our Volunteer Committee will be in touch. In whatever capacity you'd like to serve, and for whatever time you have to give, they'd love to welcome you to the TRAIL team!

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT SEEKS VOLUNTEERS

Junior Achievement of Eastern Iowa is currently in need of volunteers to support their programming at all elementary schools across the Iowa City Community School District. Volunteering is a great way to provide mentorship and enrich the lives of local students, and the students love seeing their volunteers each week! Classes are starting at several different grade levels at a variety of times throughout the Spring semester.

What Volunteers Do: They go into classrooms and teach students how money works, how education leads to career success, and how to start and run a business.

Experience Needed: None. Volunteers don't need to know anything about those things because JA provides the full lesson, materials, talking points, and training to make the classroom experience successful. They just ask that volunteers provide their time, stories to share, and enthusiasm for the content they are teaching. Teachers are present during the sessions, and we give you all you need to have a fulfilling volunteer experience!

Time Commitment: The time commitment is minimal – it's about 30-45 minutes, once a week for 5 – 6 weeks. Teaching in pairs or tag-teaming classes is an option as well.

You can watch this video to learn more: <https://youtu.be/wSaSSHYYCoTE>, or check out some of the upcoming opportunities here: Find A Class - Junior Achievement \(ja.org\).

Anyone interested can email klangrehr@jaeasterniowa.org, or call (319) 862-1100 for more information and to talk over specific opportunities.
