

THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
United Church of Christ
June 2023

Friends in Christ:

Summer sneaks into Iowa City early. In mid-May the sidewalks begin to empty out as students head home or to other summer destinations. Parking around the church suddenly opens up and stopping by during the day or coming to a meeting at night is a little easier. This year I watch from my window as workers tear up the sidewalk on Jefferson St. and dig and –what are they doing over there?

All of this and June is just beginning. Soon even warmer days and shorter nights will be here along with the crowds and music that the festivals down the street bring. It's summer and I want to relax. I will relax. And my guess is that you will find some rest and renewal in these days as well.

At the same time, I know that this is a year of rebuilding here at Congregational UCC, or the first of many years of rebuilding. My responsible, non-summer-self quotes scripture: “Go to the ant, thou sluggard” (Proverbs 6:6), telling me to keep busy during these summer months. Do not waste time. Seize the day. Make hay while the sun shines.

It is summer, however, and so I also remember that “Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain” (Psalm 127:1). As summer begins, I am keenly aware that God is at work in us and among us and through us. And so, we can relax as we rebuild. We can let the Spirit of God, the Spirit of Life that we celebrated on Pentecost, continue the good work that has begun.

Peace,

Bill

After bomb threats, Iowa City school district removes book targeted by anti-LGBTQ Twitter account

Iowa City Press-Citizen, March 30, 2023

This Book is Gay is coming off the shelves at Northwest Junior High and other Iowa City Community School District libraries following a Twitter blast aimed at the Coralville school that administrators believe was linked to a pair of bomb threats. The school had to be evacuated on consecutive days last week while police searched it. No explosive devices were found. The Libs of TikTok Twitter account, which has 2 million followers and is known for its anti-LGBTQ stance, published a Tweet on March 21 that denounced the school for having the book, which it said promotes “gay sex”. It generated hundreds of responses, many of them graphically homophobic.

Update: On May 18, 2023: “This Book is Gay” was returned to Iowa City schools libraries after going through a reconsideration committee.

We have added the following books in this genre to our church library:

This Book is Gay by Juno Dawson

What is the T? A guide to all things Trans and/or Binary by Juno Dawson

George (aka Melissa) by Alex Gino

Gender Queer a Memoir by Maia Kobabe

All Boys Aren't Blue by George M. Johnson

PRIDE 2023 Vacation Bible School at the Congregational UCC is cancelled. But all is not lost! All the material that would have been covered in this setting will be shared during Children's Church at worship this summer.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND UPCOMING EVENTS

All Church Food Drive for the month of June –

In response to the message below from the CommUnity Food bank, the Mission Board has agreed to have an all-church food drive throughout the month of June. Members and friends may bring the needed items to the church and place them by the big peanut butter jar in Rockwood Hall. Items will be taken to the food bank during the week. Alternatively, you may take the food yourself to the back door of the CommUnity Food Bank in Pepperwood Mall. Monetary donations at CommUnity are also welcome.

Our last food drive effort was wildly successful, so let's do our part once again to help meet this need.

From CommUnity:

Have you seen us in the news lately? We've been spreading the word to local media outlets about the dire need for donations to the Food Bank.

CommUnity Food Bank is currently distributing about 6,000 lbs. of food to around 200 households per day, and we're on track to hit a service record in fiscal year 2023. The previous record was 52,703 total visits in fiscal year 2017, and the Food Bank is projected to exceed 60,000 total visits by the end of June.

Many local families are not eligible for other assistance programs, and the Food Bank is their only source of groceries each week. But what we're currently able to provide is just not enough. They need more food per visit than we're able to give, and without help, the situation is only going to get worse.

In addition to an increase in visits, in-kind donations of food products are down 43% compared to last year. Both the decrease in donations and increase in Food Bank visits are due in large part to inflation. As food prices continue to rise, more families are finding themselves in need of extra assistance, and donating groceries to the Food Bank is becoming more expensive.

We need your help to provide our neighbors with adequate food for their families. Thank you for your ongoing support of our organization, and more importantly, for supporting our community.

The most-needed items include:

Financial Donations
Canned Fruit in Juice
Peanut Butter
Canned Meat
Baby Diapers

Baby Formula
Rice and Pasta
Hearty Soups and Stews
Toilet Paper
Laundry Detergent

NEW SONG EPISCOPAL CHURCH, 912 20TH AVE., CORALVILLE,
WILL HOST AN ALTERNATIVES TO VIOLENCE (AVP) MINI-WORKSHOP
FOR THE PUBLIC
ON SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 10 A.M. - 12:30 P.M.

Intensive AVP workshops, usually 20 hours over 3 days, were held in most Iowa prisons for nearly 20 years prior to the pandemic, as well as in some local schools. AVP is now being re-introduced in our area in hopes of resuming that work. More information about AVP can be found at this link, as well as the sign-up for the June 17 mini-workshop. We hope you'll come and see what AVP has to offer and consider getting involved.
